

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The Woman's College of Baltimore

Founded 1885

Opened 1888

EUGENE A. NOBLE,

President

Situation The Woman's College of Baltimore is situated near the northern boundaries of the city of Baltimore, Md., in one of the best residential sections, one hundred and fifty feet above tide-water.

Buildings The buildings are seven in number—three devoted to instruction and administration, three to residence. All are new, cheerful and commodious, erected particularly for their respective purposes, and containing the conveniences devised by modern architectural science. They are heated from a battery of boilers and lighted by electricity from the new power house of the College.

Educational Equipment Ample and thoroughly furnished laboratories facilitate study of the natural sciences by modern methods. The apparatus is of recent type, carefully selected. Maps, charts, engravings, photographs and cabinets of specimens and of objects illustrating natural history and the development of the race are liberally provided. There is a good, modern working library of about ten thousand volumes, while half a million volumes are at the service of students in public and institutional libraries easily accessible.

Course of Study The course of study includes prescribed subjects and elective subjects in about equal proportions. Students who wish to follow particular lines of study are enabled to lay a solid foundation for subsequent specialization. Elective courses are offered in Greek, Latin, French, Spanish, Italian, German, English Literature, including Old and Middle English, Mathematics, Geology, Mineralogy, Physics, Chemistry, Botany, Biology, History, Economics and Sociology. Upon the completion of a course usually requiring four years, the student is graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Physical Training and Hygiene Every candidate for the degree is required to pursue a course in physiology and hygiene. A commodious modern gymnasium provides systematic exercises according to the Ling, or Swedish, method under careful training and supervision of a physician specially prepared in mechanical therapeutics. Halls are provided for basket ball and courts for tennis and similar sports. Care is taken to prevent excess in these exercises.

Entrance Requirements These are the usual requirements of Eastern colleges and should be met by graduates of good high schools in which at least one language in addition to Latin is embraced in the course of study. Certificates of preparation which furnish full details will be considered when offered by schools previously accredited, and if found sufficient, will be accepted as substitutes for examination, otherwise examinations will be necessary. Certificates of the College Entrance Examination Board are accepted.

Numbers The College is now (1909) entering upon its twenty-second session. Its alumnae number eight hundred and thirty seven. Recent graduating classes have numbered from sixty to seventy-nine. The freshman class numbers, and for the present is limited to one hundred and twenty-five. The students are from all parts of the country. All religious denominations are liberally represented.

Application for Admission Program of the College courses, regulations for the government of the residence halls, blank forms of application and information upon special subjects will be promptly furnished upon request to

If, unfortunately, you have not been able to secure a good education, wants to help you to one.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

Whether you do or do not have it, your young people are often asking where they can best prepare themselves for their life work. If they don't ask the question of you, something is wrong. If they do ask it, the more intelligent your reply, the greater your influence with them. NORTHWESTERN has no other purpose than the fullest service to its patrons and friends, and wants their confidence. It offers to the students of the present academic year larger resources than ever.

Its departments now include:

The College offers Classical, Philosophical, Science and Pedagogical Courses.

The College of Fine Arts offers Courses in Architecture, Belles Lettres, Music and Painting.

The College of Medicine, one of the oldest in the state, has a four-years course. The late Chancellor Upson, of the Regents, unsolicited said: "It is admitted by all competent judges to be unsurpassed in this state."

The College of Law gives instruction by text-book and case system. On its faculty are some of the greatest lawyers of New York.

The College of Applied Science offers Mechanical Engineering, Civil Engineering and Electrical Engineering Courses. New buildings and approved equipment.

The Teachers College affords special opportunities for the preparation of teachers of secondary schools and supervisors of Music and Drawing, and confers Degrees upon graduating students of the Science of Pedagogy.

Over Forty of the leading Universities and Colleges of this country and Europe are represented by mature and progressive scholars on the faculty of the College of Liberal Arts. Only the highest talent to be found at home and abroad is permitted to give instruction in Fine Arts. The work is so arranged that students taking both their College and Medical or Law Courses at Syracuse save one year's time. Liberal electives. Both sexes are admitted. Tuition expenses are moderate.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY

College of Liberal Arts

This department now occupies one of the most favorable sites in Boston. Students have easy access to the Public Library, the Museum of Fine Arts, and other institutions of Boston that stand for the best things in liberal training. A well equipped gymnasium, swimming pool and tennis grounds are attractive features of the College, and provide all reasonable means for physical culture. The courses of study in all departments of undergraduate work were never before so full and well ordered.

School of Theology

Centrally located on Mt. Vernon St., Boston. Nearly two hundred students in attendance last year. The student has the advantages of University courses, furnishing the best conditions for ministerial training.

School of Law

Located in Ashburton Place, Boston, near the State House and the Court House. This department is most attractive to students in Law. New features in the courses offered make the training here practical and effective.

School of Medicine

The school is on East Concord Street, in the immediate neighborhood of the Homeopathic and the City Hospitals. A large corps of instructors. Best of facilities for clinics and practical training in medicine.

The Graduate School

offers exceptional opportunity for research work.

In all the schools the tuition is moderate.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

—OF—

Detroit Annual Conference

1909.

FIFTY-FOURTH SESSION.

FIRST DAY.

Wednesday Morning, September 15, 1909.

Conference Assembles.—The fifty-fourth session of the Detroit Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church assembled at 9:00 o'clock Wednesday morning, Sept. 15, 1909, in the Preston Methodist Episcopal Church, in Detroit, Bishop John W. Hamilton, D. D., LL. D. presiding.

Devotional Program.—Hymn 560, "And are we yet alive," was read by the Bishop and heartily sung. The forty-second chapter of Isaiah and twenty verses of the twelfth chapter of I. Corinthians were read as the scripture lessons by the Bishop, who then led the conference in prayer.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was tenderly administered by the Bishop, assisted by the District Superintendents and the pastor of Preston Church.

Collection.—The Bishop asked a collection for the purpose of planting new churches in San Francisco, and the pastor appointed collectors. The amount of collection was $ 36.95.

Roll Call.—A. R. Johns, Secretary of the former session of the conference, called the roll and the following 209 members and probationers responded to their names:

Collycott, Eugene Yager, Horace Palmer, James O. White, R. L. Cope, J. H. McCune, Charles Merrill, William B. Coombe; David Casler, John Russell.

The following probationers: J. E. Balmer, Henry Scofield.

George Elliott moved that all brethren not already reported present have the privilege of personally enrolling, and that there be no further calling of the roll.

Committee Excused.—On motion of A. W. Stalker the Committee on Ministerial Equipment was excused from the morning session of the conference.

Question 13.—Question Thirteen was asked, and W. B. Collins, District Superintendent of the Straits District, read his report.

Special Corporate Sessions.—C. W. Baldwin moved that at the close of the session of the Corporate Conference, time be given to the session of the Superannuated Preacher's Aid Society.

The conference took a recess to permit the sessions of the two corporate bodies. (See reports.)

Resolution.—W. M. Ward presented a resolution regarding the entertainment of the session of conference and nominated the following committee to confer with the Laymen's Association: G. N. Kennedy, E. M. Moore, A. R. Johns, E. Sedweek, R. T. Kilpatrick, G. W. Olmstead, and D. H. Kyes. The resolution was adopted.

Introductions.—Dr. H. C. Jennings of the Western Book Concern, Dr. R. J. Cooke, Book Editor, Dr. P. J. Maveety of the Freedmen's Aid Society, Dr. J. H. Potts of the Michigan Advocate, Rev. J. A. Draft Ordered.—Dr. Jennings of the Western Book Concern presented the annual dividend of the Book Concern amounting to $3,134.00, also a draft on the chartered fund for $25.00. The conference ordered these drafts.

Visitors Speak.—Dr. H. C. Jennings, Dr. R. J. Cooke, and Dr. J. H. Potts addressed the conference.

Draft from the Michigan Christian Advocate.—Dr. J. H. Potts presented the draft of the Michigan Christian Advocate for the sum of $1,042.84. Seth Reed moved a vote of thanks for the draft which carried with it an amendment directing that it be distributed on the annuity plan.

Time Extended.—The time was extended by vote of conference, and J. A. McKee of the American Bible Society spoke on that interest.

Announcements and Adjournment.—The announcements were made, the doxology was sung and the conference stood adjourned with the benediction by Dr. D. D. Martin.

THIRD DAY.

Friday Morning, September 17, 1909.

Devotional Program.—The Bishop opened the devotional program of the morning at 8:30 o'clock, and called upon W. J. Balmer, who spoke concerning his experiences and triumphs in evangelistic work during the year. The half hour was closed with a service of prayer.

Minutes Approved.—The Secretary read the minutes of the last session, which were adopted without correction.

Draft Ordered.—A draft from the trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church for $37.70 was ordered and turned over to the Conference Stewards.

Delinquents Called.—Treasurer Blake called the names of the charges delinquent in making their reports.

Greetings from Panama.—A letter of greeting from William W. Gray, Missionary to Panama, was read, and, on motion of L. N. Moon, a post-office order for $28.00, which was enclosed for the Superannuates, was ordered returned to Brother Gray in view of a ruling that missionaries were not so assessed.

Resolutions.—Fred H. Townsend introduced the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we recommend that the Treasurer of the Annual Conference be the person authorized to receipt for the allowance made to the Conference by the Board of Conference Claimants, and also to send the 5 per cent. for connectional distribution in accordance with paragraph 427, Section 2 of the discipline.

Signed, FRED H. TOWNSEND,
Chairman Board of Stewards.
GEORGE A. FEE, Secretary.

Resolved, That each minister be required to state whether he has brought up the pro rata amount of the conference claimants' fund when he answers to his name.

Signed, FRED H. TOWNSEND,
Chairman Board of Stewards.
GEORGE A. FEE, Secretary.

Question 7.—Question Seven was asked, "Who Have Been Admitted into Full Membership?"

The following men were passed into the studies of the third year and elected to Deacons Orders: George H. Tuckey, J. E. Mealley, Paul Lowry, Charles Collins, William Richards, George Thurston, J. O. Lansing, P. I. Osborn, Robert Stephenson, Albert Broadley, F. James Grant, George E. Gullen, Frederick K. Kempster, John R. Hindes, Joseph H. Cottam, William Ernest Hammond.

And the following were passed into the studies of the Third Year, having previously been elected and ordained Deacons: Pietari Penannen, F. E. Edwards, Samuel Linge, and Levi Bird.

Course of Study Completed.—J. Ernest Balmer, H. A. Magoon and George Hoffman, previously elected and ordained Deacons, completed the conference course of study.

Credentials Recognized.—The credentials of Edwin Simkin, from the Primitive Methodist Church; George H. Dover and J. D. Young, from the Methodist Protestant Church; and W. A. Thomas, from the United Brethren Church, as Elders were recognized and they were excused from the conference course of study.

The credentials of Samuel Linge, from the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, as a Deacon were also recognized and he was placed in the studies of the Third Year.

Discontinued.—George A. Adamson was discontinued.

Withdrawal.—It was moved that we accept the withdrawal of Horace Westwood from our ministry and membership.

Time Extended.—George Elliott's motion to extend the time was carried.

Resolution.—W. J. Cain introduced the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Eugene A. Coffin was a member of this conference for eleven years, and

WHEREAS, He transferred from this conference one year ago to the California Conference with the hope of regaining his health and prolonging his labors in the Master's vineyard, and

WHEREAS, He recently passed from his labors in the California Conference to his reward in heaven; therefore, be it

Resolved, That his memoir be placed in our conference minutes this year with the memoirs of the other deceased brethren.

Inasmuch as Rev. Eugene Coffin went from us solely in pursuit of health, and died in less than a year after being transferred from us, therefore, be it Resolved, That the Secretary of the Detroit Conference be instructed to confer with Mrs. Coffin and the California Conference, and if a satisfactory arrangement can be made, that the widow and children be made participants in the conference claimants funds of the Detroit Conference.

Signed, W. J. CAIN.

Introductions.—Rev. A. Homrighaus, pastor of the Messiah Lutheran Church, Dr. M. M. Callen, Rev. C. S. Wheeler, and Rev. George Mount of the Michigan Conference, were introduced to the conference.

Announcements.—The announcements were made by the pastor.

Visitors Speak.—Dr. David G. Downey of the Board of Sunday Schools; G. W. Morrow of the Anti-Saloon League; and Dr. D. D. Martin, representing Thomas Nicholson of the Board of Education, addressed the conference.

Adjournment.—The doxology was sung, and Dr. Downey pronounced the benediction.

Afternoon Session.

An afternoon session for the purpose of debate was called at 8:15 p. m. with J. E. Jacklin in the chair. J. S. Steininger opened the session with prayer.

The conference stood while Eugene Moore led in prayer in behalf of Brother Paul Desjardins, whose life was in danger as the result of the accident of the evening before.

Two themes were opened for debate and discussion—"The State of the Church" and "Our Doctrinal Standards." Three speeches of ten minutes each were presented on each subject. On the first by W. G. Nixon, D. H. Ramsdell and Frederick Spence. On the second by A. W. Stalker, F. D. Leete and W. H. Rider. The discussion was spirited and heartily enjoyed. And the session was closed with prayer by Rev. Joseph Frazer.

FOURTH DAY.

Saturday Morning, September 18, 1909.

Morning Devotions.—The morning devotions were begun at 8:30 o'clock with the singing of "Coronation" and prayer. The Bishop asked Bro. Lamarche to sing, and called upon Brother Gregg, who spoke of his experience in evangelistic work during the year.

Minutes Read.—The Secretary read the minutes of the previous session, and they were adopted with corrections.

Question 10.—Question Ten, "What Members Have Completed the Conference Course of Study?" was asked; A. A. Lancaster, William G. Prout, Ernest Brown, H. A. Magoon, and John E. Somers were graduated from the conference course of study and elected to Elders Orders.

Question 11.—Question Eleven, "What Others Have Been Elected and Ordained Deacons?" was asked; W. C. Francis, Charles L. Finch, Joseph Chapman, Albert E. Hill, Victor J. Hufton, John E. Lewin, Frederick D. Mumby, Harry E. Smith, Edwin Stephens, and Edward H. Wilcox were recommended for reception on trial and election to Deacons Orders under the missionary rule.

Continued in Studies of Fourth Year.—William J. Weidenhammer, George H. Hicks, C. W. Hubbard, and F. B. Johnston were continued in the studies of the Fourth Year.

Report of President Dickie.—President Dickie was presented and read his annual report, which was full of hopefulness concerning the college.

The report was accepted and referred to the Committee on Education.

Resolution.—The following resolution by M. T. Seelye was presented:

WHEREAS, There is pressing need of increase in the endowment of Albion College, and that in other ways the school should be strengthened to meet the demands of this age as a college of first rank, as well as to provide for a larger number of young people; therefore,

Resolved, That we endorse the SEMI-CENTENNIAL Campaign as a fitting opportunity to bring this cause before our people, and that in conjunction with the Michigan Conference we will cooperate with the college in undertaking to raise $200,000 within the next two years, adopting such plans as seem best adapted to our several charges.

D. H. RAMSDELL.
F. F. FITCHETT.
H. C. SHAW.
WILLIAM TODD.
O. W. TRASK.
T. J. GREGG.
M. T. SEELYE.

Albion College Trustees.—William Dawe nominated D. M. Christian, of Owosso, and E. A. Elliott, of Bay City, as trustees for Albion College, and they were elected.

Resolution.—J. G. Haller presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

While we still hold with unabated fervor to the wisdom of the separation between Church and State, we maintain that this separation cannot excuse the Church from exercising deep, and intelligent concern for and watchfulness over the affairs of the State. The Holy Scriptures clearly lay upon the body of believers very distinctive obligations toward the State.

Inasmuch as morality, righteousness and the Christian faith are; to a greater or less extent, continually involved in the administration of the various institutions of our commonwealth, the State of Michigan, and particularly its educational institutions; therefore, be it

Resolved, That a committee of three shall be elected by this conference annually, which shall be called a Committee on State Institutions, and which may cooperate with similar committees appointed by other christian bodies in our state in giving careful attention to the conduct and administration of our state institutions, especially in its effects upon the aims and ideals which the Christian Church holds to be fundamental to the public weal.

Resolved, That this committee shall make annual report to this body, stating its findings and whatever recommendations it may deem expedient to submit.

Resolved, That F. D. Leete, D. W. Ramsdell, E. P. Bennett, J. S. Smart shall be the committee for the ensuing year.

F. D. LEETE.

A. R. JOHNS.

GEO. ELLIOTT.

J. G. HALLER.

The American University.—Dr. Franklin Hamilton was presented and spoke in the interest of the American University, and the Bishop gave an opportunity for the conference to pledge subscriptions for the school.

Time Extended.—On motion, the time was extended.

Adjournment.—The announcements were made and the conference stood adjourned with the benediction by the Bishop.

FIFTH DAY.

Sunday Morning, September 19, 1909.

Love Feast.—A fair and inviting day dawned on Sunday morning and invited to the privileges of the Lord's house. The love feast was led by Jacob Horton and was an inspiring means of grace.

Collection.—A collection for the Superannuated ministers was taken and amounted to the sum of $72.04.

The Morning Hour of Worship.—A great concourse of people, filling every available place in Preston church, gathered to listen to the preaching of the Bishop and to enjoy the service of the morning. Bishop Hamilton chose for his text the 9th verse of the 46th Psalm, "He maketh wars to cease unto the ends of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire," and preached a powerful sermon in exaltation of the reign of peace among men and the triumph of good will in human hearts.

Memorial Service.—The memorial services for the ministers deceased during the year was held at 2:30 o'clock, with E. L. Moon, chairman of the Committee on Memoirs, in the chair. The following memoirs were read: J. Mileson Kerridge, by Rev. S. R. Williams; John H. Carmichael, by E. L. Moon; Henry Wright, by H. C. Shaw; Thos. Baskerville, by J. E. Jacklin.

W. G. Nixon spoke concerning the life and sudden death of Paul Desjardins, and A. W. Stalker that of Eugene A. Coffin, and W. J. Cain for the wives of ministers dying during the year, who were three in number: Mrs. F. E. Pearce, Mrs. D. B. Tracy, Mrs. Silas P. Warner; Mrs. Caster and Mrs. Owen having been previously omitted.

Consecration of Deaconesses.—Iva Lola Ludewick and Ethel Young, deaconesses, were consecrated by Bishop Hamilton, assisted by C. W. Baldwin, Chairman of the Deaconess Board of Nine.

Ordination.—The largest class in the history of the conference and the largest ever ordained at one time by the presiding bishop, presented itself for ordination in the christian ministry. The following sixteen were ordained deacons, having been elected to full membership in the conference: George H. Tuckey, John E. Mealey, Paul Lowry, Charles Collins, William Richards, George Thurston, J. Orthro Lansing, P. Isaac Osborn, Robert Stephenson, Albert Broadley, F. James Grant, George E. Gullen, Frederick K. Kempster, John R. Hindes, Joseph H. Cottam, William E. Hammond.

The following five were received from other denominations, the orders of four as Elders were recognized, and they took the vows of Elders of the Methodist Episcopal church: Edwin Simpkin from the Primitive Methodist Church; John D. Young and George H. Dover, of the Methodist Protestant Church; William A. Thomas, from the United Brethren was absent. Samnel Linge was recognized as a Deacon from the Methodist Church, South, and took the vows of the Deacons office.

Ordination of Elders.—Five candidates for Elders Orders, having completed the conference course of study, presented themselves: A. A. Lancaster, Ernest Brown, William G. Prout, Herbert A. Magoon, John E. Somers and George Hoffman. The service of conferring Deacons and Elders Orders and parchments was conducted by the Bishop, assisted by the District Superintendents, and was a most impressive occasion.

SIXTH DAY.

Monday Morning, September 20, 1909.

Devotional Half Hour.—The half hour of devotions was conducted by the Bishop, beginning at 8:30 a. m., with a brief address on the spiritual fundamentals of Methodist faith and practice and the art of winning souls.

Minutes Read.—The minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

Resolution.—Oscar W. Willits read the following resolution relative to the death of Paul Desjardins:

WHEREAS, Our brother, Paul Desjardins, when alighting from a city car on the second day of this conference session was thrown to the pavement and received injury which has since resulted in his death, we, his fellow members desire to make record of our bereavement. While the calamitous manner of his death doubtless has sharpened the shock of our own grief, it is in no degree the occasion of the affection and honor in which we shall hold his memory. That was his own achievement by years of faithful living and unsullied example. His fearless independence and unaffected humility, his fidelity to his convictions of upright principle, his simple reverence and piety, his solid worth and wisdom of heart have been steadily and progressively impressing our hearts through the years as he has gone in and out among us;

Resolved: Therefore, That at 11:30 o'clock this morning, we do adjourn to attend as a body the funeral services at the Central Church this city, and that a minute of these services be made a part of the record of this morning's session.

Resolved: Further, That without inquiry whether there be need we give ourselves the privilege of making an offering toward the expenses of the burial, and pray the family to accept the same as a slight testimonial of the depth and sincerity of our fellowship in their mourning and in the memories they cherish.

OSCAR W. WILLITS.

District Superintendent Reports.—L. N. Moon, District Superintendent of the Saginaw Valley District, read his report.

Seth Reed Takes the Chair.—The Bishop called Seth Reed to the chair for the ensuing half hour.

Resolution.—J. E. Jacklin presented the following resolution in behalf of the District Superintendents:

For the first time in the history of the Detroit Conference two consecutive sessions have been presided over by the same Bishop. This was brought about through the request of the District Superintendents and the concurrence of our Board of Bishops. No mistake was made in this adjustment, and we wish here and now to record our high appreciation of the services rendered by our beloved Bishop Hamilton during the session of our conference.

His treatment of ministers and laymen has been uniformly kind and courteous; his work in the conference room has been well done; his public ministrations were of a high order and his work in the cabinet has been careful and helpful throughout,

As Bishop Hamilton goes from us, he goes with our well wishes and prayers; and should he ever come to us again in his official capacity, we assure him a hearty welcome.

Signed, JAMES PASCOE.

Memoirs.

REV. THOMAS H. BASKERVILLE.

Thomas H. Baskerville was born in Dublin, Ireland, in 1845, and came with his parents to Canada in 1850. In 1861 he came to Detroit for a couple of years, and then returned to his parents, but came again to Detroit in 1866. He joined the Detroit Conference in 1873, and continued in the effective ranks for thirteen years, serving as pastor at Troy, Escanaba, Watrousville, South Saginaw, East Tawas, Wayne and Haven Church, Detroit.

He was married in 1868 to Miss May J. Armstrong at Port Huron. One son, Herbert, grew to manhood and became a lawyer, dying in Portland, Oregon, about a year before the death of his father. The family went to the Pacific coast in 1896. For more than twelve years of his superannuation he was away from Michigan, traveling on business in various parts of the country. In 1907 his health became quite poor and he went to Alaska, hoping to be benefitted by the change of climate. He died at Fairbanks, Alaska, September 8, 1908.

A post mortem examination showed that a malignant growth posterior to the stomach had probably for years pressed upon the nerves in a way to greatly affect his condition. This probably explained his moods and was the cause of the excruciating suffering he had experienced for years.

He was a man of warm temperament, aggressive in spirit and impulsive in action. His ministry was marked by tireless energy. He panted in restless efforts at doing effective things. His sympathy for the unfortunate was deep and genuine and he was ready to make any personal sacrifice in helping them. Such was also the spirit of Christ, and "of such is the kingdom of heaven."

S. MORLEY PRESTON.

REV. JOHN H. CARMICHAEL.

John H. Carmichael was born at Wellesburg, Virginia, March 19, 1854, and died the 11th of January 1909. He grew up in the vicinity of his birthplace, and then acting upon the famous advice, "Go West, young man," he joined the procession of aspirants from the East and came to Ohio.

He worked at secular employments for some years, but his religious convictions of duty inclined him to the ministry of the Gospel; and for several years, while thus engaged, part of the time in a foundry, and later as a bookkeeper, he served the church as a local preacher. Becoming convinced that his life should be fully dedicated to the holy ministry, he sought the necessary intellectual qualifications and obtained such a measure of higher education as opportunity seemed to warrant, at Scio College, Ohio, and York College, Nebraska.

His traveling connection was for the first few years in the West Nebraska conference, after which he became a member of the Nebraska conference. Then at the close of fourteen years of service in those two conferences, he was transferred, twelve years ago, to the Detroit conference. His appointments here were Ubyly, Metamora, Romulus, Harrisville, Juddville, and Adair.

In 1882 young Carmichael took unto himself a helpmeet in the person of Miss Ida Moore, of Junction City, Ohio, and with whom he lived in continuous happy relation. The family circle gradually increased until there were four children, three daughters and one son. But the parents were sorely bereaved a few years ago by the death of a beautiful and brilliant daughter, Oneada.

For many years Rev. Carmichael suffered from an ailment located in his head causing frequent discharge and pain, and supposed to have been the result of a severe injury in childhood. The chronic pain in his head, though scarcely known outside of his own family, grew more intense with advancing years, and interfered in no small degree with his studies, yet his sermons are said to have become more effectual up to the last. But the forces of his disease became increasingly violent until mental collapse was finally precipitated, and quickly followed by resulting death.

Bro. Carmichael was naturally a congenial and kindly spirit and sincerely esteemed by his ministerial brethren. And she who knew him best eulogizes him "as a great, kind man, incapable of doing anything wrong." He was a devoted and arduous worker in the ministry, patient, unselfish, and faithful; erected churches, held revivals and built up the people in the most holy faith. His memory is sacred in the hearts of many friends, and the sorrowing family are consoled by the fervent and widely extended sympathy of the church.

The funeral services were conducted mainly at Romulus where the remains were interred. John Sweet, C. W. Baldwin and others made addresses, and Dr. Leete offered prayer. Of ministers there were sixteen present to render aid in the obsequies and bestow a tribute of sympathizing love.

EUGENE A. COFFIN.

Eugene A. Coffin was born in Tecumseh, Mich., May 11, 1867, and died in Los Angeles, Cal., September 3, 1909. From his fifth to his twenty-third year he lived in Clinton, where came his conversion and his call to the ministry. He graduated from Albion College in June, 1894, and immediately offered himself to the Detroit Conference, entering the ranks upon trial in September, 1894. In November of the same year he was married to Miss Etta Robinson, of Hanover, Ill. Their children were Hazel Margaret, Kathryn Louise, and Melvin Allen. Kathryn died in Salem when but two years of age.

His appointments were as follows: Trenton, Salem, South Lyon, Marlette, Port Huron, and Delano, Cal., to which place he was transferred in September, 1908. He died in a hospital in Los Angeles, and his worn body was laid to rest in its park-like city of the dead, Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Brother Coffin's appearance and activity would naturally have led one to anticipate for him long years of christian labor and an old age with mellow and fruitful decline. Large of bone and strong in muscular fiber, he possessed the physical basis for that a bounding energy, that, when he was at Albion College, made the very strenuous sport of foot-ball a keen delight and all work a joy. In those moments of enthusiasm, which were often long protracted, his eyes shone, his body fairly quivered, and it was impossible for him not to indulge in self expression in speech.

But the physical was not his life. It gave the necessary basis of contact with earth and furnished a veritable engine of power. To analyze his quality, one is compelled to recognize an unusual intellectual capacity and power. His appetite for fact and truth was very keen; his hunger for them was simply ravenous. Books of comprehensive sweep, closely woven thought and richest content were on his shelves, in his thoughts and in his life. This disposition for wide foraging in the fields of knowledge, this ability to wrest off the husk until he held the priceless kernel of truth, was so prominent and permanent a characteristic of his that we are inclined to call it an attribute. He divided clearly between the accidental and the necessary, between the temporal and the abiding.

But his life did not consummate in the intellectual. His knowledge was subordinate to the sacred purpose of his life. His dedication, made with perfect abandon, had immediate and final reference to the salvation of men. For this he steadfastly lived and in pursuit of this ideal he died. Only those who sat long with him and to whom he poured out his soul, or those who were the recipients of his earnest, appealing ministry can appreciate his sense of his mission as a minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church. It was in the overstrain of a series of revival meetings at Marlette that the weak point in his apparently invulnerable constitution revealed itself. A moderate, complacent view of duty or privilege would unquestionably have lengthened his days, but it would have also left the folk he helped to save in the destroying grip of selfishness and sin. In his love were fervor, positiveness and power. He took upon himself the burden of others' sin and want and pain. That was his love.

No charge that he served was without a revival. He believed men could and should be saved through his ministry. The gospel was his only message, supplemented by his passionate devotion to Jesus and to men. His life was one of power. The world has lost a man, and the church a loyal and true servant.

A. W. STALKER.

PAUL DESJARDINES.

The unusual has happened. Our conference sessions this year have been held among the shadows where two worlds meet: for on the second day of the session when going to his place of entertainment, Paul Desjardines fell from a street car, resulting in a fracture of the skull, from which he died Saturday, Sept. 18, 1909.

Paul Desjardines had splendid preparation for his work. He was educated in Albion College and Boston University School of Theology. After his scholastic preparation he labored in mission work among the French of New York City, coming to this conference about twenty-five years ago.

This great sorrow has so recently come upon us that it is impossible to translate the heart-throb of grief to the printed page. His work in the conference was of the highest order. He was not spectacular, but substantial. He was not a meteor—he was a fixed star. Always appreciated where he labored, but never as fully as after he had gone leaving foundations worthy to be builded upon.

His last Sunday before conference was a great day in his church at Washington Avenue, Port Huron. It was the 21st Anniversary of his marriage. His text on that occasion was "Finally brethren, farewell, be perfect, be of good comfort, live in peace and the God of love and peace shall be with you." Corinthians 13:11. He little thought he was preaching a farewell sermon, but so it proved. His funeral was held at the noon hour Sept. 20, 1909, in Central Church, Detroit, Bishop John W. Hamilton officiating, and the Conference attending in a body.

Interment was made at Kalamazoo, Mich.

He leaves a wife and four children: two sons, Clarence and Russel, and two daughters, Lucile and Helen. The sympathy of the whole church is extended to the sorrowing family. "Farewell." Go on prosperously in thy heavenly appointment given by the Bishop of Souls until we meet thee in the conference beyond the stars.

W. G. NIXON.

REV. J. MILESON KERRIDGE.

The Rev. J. Mileson Kerridge was born in Laston, England, Nov. 27, 1839, and died at his home in Adrian, Oct. 30, 1908. His family on both sides except his father and mother were Church of England people and several were rectors in that church. Brother Kerridge's parents being Baptists, he was brought up in that faith and preached in that church at the early age of nineteen. It was his privilege to enjoy the friendship of the Rev. Charles Hadden Spurgeon. But this young man was not to spend his days in that church. With exceptionally fine musical taste and being warm-hearted he again and again stole away from the family group and went to the Methodist chapel to hear the singing and the preaching which delighted him. He came to Chatham, Canada, in 1866. Here he was married to Jean Hannah Allen. In 1871 they moved to Detroit, Mich. The officers of the Central M. E. Church becoming acquainted with him, discovered his usefulness, engaged him as a salaried soloist in its choir. Under the pastorate of Dr. L. R. Fiske he reconsecrated his life to God and made his way to greater usefulness. While Dr. W. X. Ninde was pastor of the Central Church he was assistant pastor. The fourth quarterly conference of that church recommended him for conference membership and at Adrian, where his greatest successes were achieved, he was received on probation in 1877. His first appointment was Carleton, where he stayed three years, when he was advanced to the larger charge at Blissfield, where another full term of three years was spent. His third charge was Clinton, where he spent two years, followed by four years at Grass Lake. In 1889 he was sent to one of the largest and most trying churches in the conference and there were brethren who feared it would prove too onerous and exacting for him, and who wished for his sake a less difficult field had been given him. Their fears were not well founded, and he did succeed, and did so triumphantly and had one of the best, if not the very best pastorates in his ministry. This appointment was to the very church where he had been received into the ministry on trial and where he spent his closing year of rest and where a great throng came to his funeral. Here he spent a full term of five years and then two years were given to the large Owosso church then in great activity and growth. The next three years he was pastor of the Calumet church, also a large one. For ten consecutive years he carried heavy pastorates and wrought successfully. Remaining in the upper peninsula he became pastor at Escanaba and wrought five years, going to Iron Mountain in 1904 for three years. Brother Kerridge found his health very much broken at the end of this period and a year ago he requested to be released from the effective work and given a place among the superannuates. He removed to Adrian, where he made his home, supplying during the latter part of the year the church at Dundee. Brother Kerridge was a student, as a library of over two thousand carefully selected volumes showed. He was a retiring man, but very amiable and very frank. He was vigorous in preaching and conservative in theology. His scripture lessons to those who were privileged to hear him were enjoyed as much as some sermons. His chosen themes were related to the great fundamentals and were calculated to lead to repentance, faith and holy living. He was respected, honored and loved by his brethren and his memory will be a fragrance among them. Beside Mrs. Kerridge he leaves three children. His elder son, Philip (an Episcopalian clergyman), Miss Ermanilda, and James, the youngest son. His funeral was held at Adrian, attended by a large concourse of people. Scores whom he had baptized, married, received into the church and preached to were grieved by his death. The services were in charge of his pastor (Rev. D. H. Ramsdell), assisted by Drs. Dawe, Sweet and others.

REV. H. W. WRIGHT.

Rev. Henry William Wright, son of Martin and Dolly Wright, was born in West-Brook, Conn., Feb. 2, 1836. He was one of a family of nine children, six sons and three daughters, all of whom reached maturity except one. He came from a family that could boast of pioneer history in America, tracing his lineage back for nine generations to the arrival of Benjamin Wright from England, only twenty years after the landing of the Mayflower; and the descendants of Benjamin Wright had no little part in the shaping of colonial affairs and in the laying of the foundation of our government. Brother Wright was converted early in life, soon felt the call of God into the ministry, and recognizing the importance of that work he sought to have the best mental equipment possible. He entered Clinton Academy at Clinton, Conn., and later Fort Edwards College, Fort Edwards, N. Y., coming from there to Adrian College, Mich., in 1862, where he continued until the last semester of his senior year, when he was compelled to leave on account of sickness.

In 1864 he was married to Miss Mary Spencer, of Holloway, who was one of his classmates at Adrian. Three children came to brighten their home, Elizabeth May, now deceased; George, of Centerville, Cal., and Alfred, at whose house he made his home since his superannuation in 1900.

His faithful and consecrated wife, who so nobly supported him in the itinerant work, preceded him to the "Father's home" on December 5, 1906.

He died, triumphant in the faith, at 2:30 o'clock a. m., May 20, 1909, aged 73 years, 3 months and 18 days, leaving behind him to mourn their loss, his two sons, two granddaughters, one grandson, a brother and one sister, and a host of spiritual sons and daughters, who to-day rise up and call him blessed.

His was a long and fruitful ministry, serving the following places: One year at Coldwater; one year at the old home in the east, then on account of failing health, ten years on a farm at Holloway; Palmyra, two years; Hadley, three years; Hartland, one year; Davisburg, two years; Dundee, two years, after which he removed to Albion that the children might have the benefit of a college training; serving while there Napoleon and Blissfield, each one year, then Mayville, three years; Clio, two years; Bancroft, two years; Linden, three years, and Weston, one year, superannuating in 1900.

He was a profound thinker, and he brought the fruits of his research and gave them for the benefit of the church. Few men knew the Word as he knew it; few were so efficient as he in the exposition of it.

He was always solicitous for the spiritual welfare of the church, fearlessly declaring the whole counsel of God, being blessed of Him in the leading of many into deep, sweet and soul-satisfying experiences. In his death the church has lost an able advocate and a staunch defender.

The funeral was held from the Petersburg M. E. church, where, he held his membership, at ten o'clock Monday, 24, 1909, conducted by his pastor, Rev. E. R. Rice, assisted by Rev. T. J. Joslin, who gave the principal address; District Superintendent William Dawe; Rev. Horace Palmer and the writer. Revs. F. O. Jones, A. T. Camburn and M. J. Stevens were also present. Interment was made at Holloway. He was faithful unto death, and wears the crown of life.

"Rest from thy labor, rest,
Soul of the just, set free!
Blest be thy memory, and blest
Thy bright example be."

—H. R. BEATTY.

MRS. J. H. CASTER.

Mrs. Amanda Perham Caster was born in Pennsylvania, in 1825, and closed her earthly pilgrimage in Wolverine Michigan, January 31, 1907.

When but a child, she came with her parents from Pennsylvania to Michigan. She was converted in early life, and became the wife of Rev. J. H. Caster February 24, 1846.

From the very beginning of her married life she proved herself in every way worthy of the high and responsible position to which she had been called. For nearly forty years she was an earnest worker and a strong factor in the church of the Lord Jesus. Many of the older people who attended the camp meetings in Shiawassee and Ingham counties will recall the spiritual fervor of this devout soul. Though nearly all her life she was physically frail, her mighty spiritual energy could find rest only in active service for the Master. She was the mother of seven children, four of whom are still living.

Through all the hardships of the itinerant's life, she was a never-failing source of comfort and good cheer. She could cheerfully suffer and bear burdens and work for Jesus, whom she loved. Death had no terrors for her. When the end came she quietly fell asleep saying, "Let me go, my Savior calls me."

The funeral service was conducted in Gaines, Michigan, by the pastor, Rev. George W. Wright. In the old cemetery just outside the church yard, hard by the scene of some of their most successful labors, side by side, lie brother and sister Caster, two faithful servants of the church, awaiting the resurrection of the just. "Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep."

MRS. F. E. PEARCE.

Mrs. Eliza Adella Pearce was born July 13, 1849, in North Lake, Michigan, and died in Parshallville, Michigan, November 18, 1908. She was married to Rev. F. E. Pearce August 14, 1872, and for thirty-six years she was a devoted and sympathetic helper. During the long ministerial career of Brother Pearce she was the force and inspiration back of him. God was good to leave her here until His servant had finished his active ministerial career, and taken the relation of a superannuate. Sister Pearce possessed rare and beautiful qualities as wife, mother, friend, and sympathetic helper in all church work, Christian and benevolent enterprises. But nowhere did her Christian spirit and devotion to the Master shine with more splendor than in the home. She had a high conception of a mother's power, and right well did she use this influence to mould into noble Christian manhood the sons whom God had given into her keeping. This sacred trust was not betrayed, and her sons rise up today and call her blessed.

More than two years prior to her death she was stricken with paralysis, after which her health gradually declined, as the harvest ripens for the garner. For fourteen weeks preceding her death she had been a constant sufferer, confined to her bed. But she bore it all with Christian fortitude, never doubting her Father's care, but praising Him to the last.

Her life was well lived. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." She was the mother of four sons, three of whom are still living, all active members of the church. Harvey G. is a member of the Detroit Conference; Webster H. is superintendent of the Broad Street Methodist Sunday School in Adrian, while the third son is a law student in Washington, D. C. We do not mourn, even as those who have no hope. Sister Pearce came to the end of life's journey in the full triumph of a Christian faith. After having sanctified and illuminated the parsonage for thirty-six years, she passed without a murmur from the Parshallville parsonage to her home in heaven.

The funeral was conducted by Revs. D. H. Glass and A. W. Wilson at North Lake, the home of her childhood, and she was laid to rest in the cemetery where sleep many of her friends, her brothers and sisters, father and mother and grandparents.

ELIZABETH DAVIS STOUT.

Elizabeth Davis Stout was born at Canandaigua, New York, August 5, 1836. She was married to Rev. D. B. Tracy June 17, 1855. To this union no children were born. Mrs. Tracy was a devout, godly woman, a true helpmate to her husband, and a good servant of the church. She was for years a member of the executive committee of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and did her work well. She died at Goldendale, Washington, January 3rd, 1909. Though gone from among us, the sweet fragrance of her consecrated life is a lingering inspiration.

MRS. SILAS P. WARNER.

Sister Warner was born at Westport, New York, July 16, 1828, and died at Saginaw, Michigan, December 5, 1908, having passed the four-score mark nearly three months.

She was first married to Mr. Ira B. Cleveland in 1845, with whom she lived happily for fifty years. To this union were born ten children, only one of whom is now living, viz., Mrs. Louis C. Hyde, of Springfield, Massachusetts. Mr. Cleveland died in April, 1888. After being a widow for more than eight years, she was married to Rev. Silas P. Warner, at Detroit, November 6, 1896, at the age of sixty-eight. Twelve years later this union was severed by death, Brother Warner dying in Saginaw February 29, 1908, and Sister Warner dying nine months later.

Mrs. Warner's remains were buried at Flint, Michigan, by her first husband's side, and Mr. Warner was buried at Detroit by the side of his first wife. The funeral services of both Mr. and Mrs. Warner were conducted by the Rev. A. B. Leonard, D. D., of Saginaw. Both Brother and Sister Warner passed away without any illness or warning of the near approach of death. Having gone to the bathroom to shave, he was discovered a few minutes later lying on the floor, where he had died almost instantly from the bursting of a blood vessel in the brain.

Mrs. Warner was getting up in the morning, and feeling faint, asked Mrs. Sheriff, with whom she lived, to raise the window, as she felt that she was having a little touch of asthma. Then instantly sinking back on the bed, she passed away with no pain or knowledge that death was near.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

Your committee has examined the accounts of the District Superintendents and find them to be correct.

We recommend the adoption of the report of the Financial Secretary.

BENEVOLENCES.

The Benevolence work of our Church is a striking fulfillment of the great commission given by Christ when he said, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature;" and when we study carefully the work of the various organizations whose purpose it is to fulfill that commission, there is no reason to fear that Christianity is on the wane or that the church is dying.

The General Conference at its recent session in Baltimore revised the law enacted four years previously when it consolidated the Benevolences; so that now, we have five organizations instead of three appealing for and distributing the contributions of our people for this work.

They are as follows: Foreign Missions, Home Missions and Church Extension, Education, Sunday Schools and Freedman's Aid Society.

We call attention to the fact that the work of the Freedman's Aid Society is now exclusively among the Colored people of the South, and its success during the past year fully justifies the change.

The creation of the Board of Sunday Schools marks a new era in the Church, for it means that henceforth the Church is to put a new emphasis upon Evangelistic work among the young, as well as to increase the efficiency of its methods of teaching.

This Board has organized during the year three hundred Sunday Schools in needy places, and these Schools have now a membership of twelve thousand pupils. It has also sent a thousand dollars to the Foreign field for the distribution of Sunday School literature.

We are also glad to learn that this year will show a marked increase in offerings for the two great Missionary Societies; neither of which can claim the preeminence.

We hail with intense satisfaction the declaration of principles of the Board of Home Missions as touching Missionary appropriations, one of which is; that charges which have for fifteen years or more been receiving Missionary money shall be discontinued as Missionary charges. In the interest of the great west and cities of our country now crying for help, and new territory in our own and other conferences, this should be done if possible.

What a magnificent opportunity is ours, doors wide open everywhere. Some idea of the magnitude of this work will be gained if we remember that the Methodist Episcopal Church preaches the Gospel in at least sixteen languages in this country. Verily, the world is at our doors.

We congratulate the church on the auspicious beginning of the Laymen's Missionary movement, which seeks to arouse and enlist our Laymen in the specific work of carrying the Gospel to the ends of the earth.

We pledge ourselves to a renewed consecration to the philanthropic and missionary work God has committed to our charge, and will hold up the hands of the Secretaries of the various Boards who are so nobly and successfully leading us to victory.

Signed, HARTLEY CANSFIELD.
Chairman Committee.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' DAY.

We bid the fathers in Israel take cheer. This has been a great year for the Conference Claimants throughout Methodism, and the offering for them from the churches has been increased in Detroit Conference from $7,559.00, the amount reported last year, to $10,250.00, the amount received from that same source this year. Last year they received from all sources $12,680.48. This year receipts from all sources were $14,583.84, making a net increase of $1,903.41.

We urge the working of the disciplinary plan, which provides that "each congregation shall annually observe one Sunday as Conference Claimants' Day, on which the pastor shall present the obligations of the church." We recommend the observance of a Sunday in November, as Conference Claimants' Day.

We recommend the use of the programs prepared by the Board of Conference Claimants for use on that day. That the committee be instructed to print envelopes to aid the pastors in taking the collection, such envelopes to be sent to those pastors who request them, only.

We hereby resolve that we will stand by the cause loyally and do all we can to place this cause on a sound financial basis.

O. J. BLACKFORD.

DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE.

The past year has been one of applied energy in our Deaconess work, and much consecrated service has been rendered in the name of the Master by the godly women who are called Deaconesses. Our stated work being confined to the city of Detroit, all the Deaconesses under our supervision have been connected with the Detroit Deaconess Home, which has been under the efficient superintendency of Mrs. Margaret Delight Moors.

The following named Deaconesses have served our missions and churches in Detroit during the past year: Mrs. Margaret Delight Moors, Deborah B. Kerfoot, Kate A. Blackburn, Alice B. Shirey, A. Maude King, May L. Beard, Mary L. Winget, Bessie Yonkers, Rose

A. Way; Miriam Lennon, an Associate Deaconess, and Gladys Scribner, Bessie Dancy, Edna Bacon, probationers of the first year. Eva Z. Hursh and Katherine Bowerman have been on leave of absence during the year and now hold their relation as Deaconesses to the department of Deaconess work of the Woman's Home Missionary Society instead of to the Detroit Deaconess Home as formerly.

Changes in the personell of our force have taken place as follows: Minnie M. Bell, probationer, discontinued work in the early part of the year; Bessie Yonker has returned to her former Conference; Edna Bacon, probationer, has gone to The Epworth Institute at St. Louis, Mo. Mary L. Winget has gone to Ohio on indefinite leave on account of health considerations, finding herself unable to continue her work at Tillman Ave. on her return from her summer vacation. Rose A. Way was called to her home in Jackson on account of the failing health of her mother in the latter part of the year, and will not be able to return to the work at present. Rachel Scott, who came to us in the early part of the year, returned to her former Conference in February. Mabel Hardy, probationer, on leave has taken other work and will not re-enter Deaconess work at present. Alice E. Metcalf has come to us from the Travelers aid work in Toledo, Ohio. Beulah Clement, a graduate of the Grand Rapids Training School, is now enrolled among our workers; also Ethel Young, of Kansas City and Iva Lola Ludwick, of Grand Rapids; Miss Young and Miss Ludwick, being candidates for consecration at this time. Mattie I. Scott comes into our work on trial, and Florence F. Frost comes into our Detroit Home as assistant to Miss Bancroft in the Secretarial work of the Deaconess Department of the Woman's Home Missionary Society and as assistant to Mrs. Moors in the management of the Home.

The Deaconesses under the supervision of the Conference Board at present are Margaret Delight Moors, Deborah B. Kerfoot, Kate A. Blackburn, Alice B. Shirey, May L. Beard, A. Maude King, Alice E. Metcalf, Florence F. Frost, Ethel Young, Iva Lola Ludwick. Probationers, Gladys Scribner, Bessie E. Dancy, Beulah Clement. On trial, Mattie I. Scott. Associate Deaconess, Miriam Lennon.

The report of the Treasurer of the Detroit Home for the year ending June 30th, 1909, was as follows:

Receipts, From Detroit Conf. W. H. M. S.....	$1,015.50
From Churches	3,012.02
From Epworth Leagues	200.00
From Bequests.....	304.68
From other sources.....	100.00
	$4,632.15
Disbursements.....	$4,497.38
Balance on hand.....	134.77

During the year a very important addition to our Real Estate has been made by the purchase of the Baxter property adjoining our Home on the west, being of 40 feet frontage on Elizabeth street west, and having two houses, one a brick structure which rents readily at $35.00 per month, and the other a frame house for the use of which we are now receiving $25.00 per month. This property cost us $9,000.00, and the purchase was made possible by the proverbial generosity of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Robinson, of Detroit, who donated one-third of the purchase price. Mr. Robinson giving $2,000.00 and Mrs. Robinson $1,000.00. About $2,000.00 was secured by personal canvass among the churches, and the purchase was made. $4,1000.00 is being carried by the Board of Trustees on notes given to Mr. George O. Robinson, and these will be cared for in due time. This purchase bids fair to be a profitable one for the Home, as it is in a section of the city where values are advancing rapidly, and should the property not be needed for use in our Deaconess work, within a few years it will doubtless be available for market purposes at a good advance, and in the meantime the rentals amply provide for all interest charges and other expenses of maintenance.

Concerning Deaconess work in Detroit and in Detroit Conference it may be truly said that we are yet in our infancy.

The demand is much greater than the supply and increases with use. The field is immense and but little cultivated as yet.

The workers are consecrated, earnest and faithful. We need more of them, and they need and should have greater encouragement and larger support by the church.

The terms of office of the following named members of the Conference Board of Nine expire at this session: George O. Robinson, Mrs. W. B. Pope, Mrs. C. H. Stalker. The Board respectfully recommends the election of George O. Robinson, Mrs. C. H. Stalker and Mrs. R. S. Mason, these to serve the term of three years. Those continuing in office for one year are E. P. Bennett, F. D. Leete, W. Scott Jones. Those continuing in office for two years are William Dawe, Mrs. J. S. Vernor, C. W. Baldwin.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. W. BALDWIN, President.

DETROIT CORPORATE CONFERENCE.

The Annual Corporate Conference held its session in Preston Church Detroit, Sept. 16, 1909, J. E. Jacklin in the chair. The Secretary presented the following report of the Trustees which was adopted:

REPORT OF TRUSTEES.

DEAR BRETHREN.—Another year has passed with no unusual event occurring in the business of the conference as conducted by your trustees. Its funds have been well invested and the interest has been quite promptly paid. The annual meeting of the board occurred in Detroit, Sept. 6, at which the Treasurer, J. M. Gordon, presented his annual report and statement, which were examined by the Auditing Committee and reported by them as correct. The following is a statement showing the resources and liabilities of the conference on Sept. 1, 1909.

RESOURCES.—Mortgages and notes, $17,000.00; interest due, $414.81; cash on deposit, $1,093.41; a total of $18,507.72.

LIABILITIES.—Endowment: Winters Fund, $15,000; Bartholomew fund, $500.00; General Fund, $200.00; Rev. I. E. Springer (annuity), $500.00; Trust Funds: Rev. G. W. Lowe for the two most needy superannuates, $500.00; Arnold A. Osborne for Church Extension work, $510.00; Sale of Franciscoville Church, $209.30; Sale of Gould City Church, $75.00; surplus from Dividends, $40.40; available for distribution, $973.02; a total of $18,507.72.

The Board recommends that $900.00 from the interest account be turned over to the Conference Stewards to be distributed by them upon the annuity plan. The time expires with this session of trustees J. E. Jacklin, Seth Reed and C. W. Baldwin, and the Board respectfully nominated them for re-election.

Respectfully submitted,

SETH REED, Secretary.

This report was amended by a vote to turn over the $900.00 from the interest account to the interest account of the Superannuated Preachers' Aid Society, to be distributed by them according to their rules. The Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the conference for the Trustees, which he did, and elected J. E. Jacklin, Seth Reed and C. W. Baldwin. The conference then adjourned.

SETH REED, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

Cradled and reared in the atmosphere of learning, Methodism can never be defined nor understood without reference to her educational spirit and life.

Bishop Hamilton has called our attention to the leadership that is forced upon us as a church by reason of the numerical greatness of our constituency; nothing but a training that brings out the best in heart and mind will fit us for such leadership. An educated leadership, in pulpit and pew is imperative.

We contemplate with satisfaction the work being done and the standards maintained in the colleges, universities and seminaries of our church. We commend especially the reports from two institutions. The report of the conference visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute, representing 28 conferences, "Records its profound faith in the members of the faculty of the Institute as men of wisdom, probity, sound doctrine, and safe spiritual leadership." Also the report of President Dickie of Albion College, indicating a year of prosperity at Albion. The large percentage of Albion students who enter our ministry makes it especially urgent that we do all we can to influence our worthy young people from our charges to entrust their training for life to our school at Albion.

We commend the work of Dr. D. D. Martin, secretary of education for the college. He has a definite program for bringing Albion into sympathetic touch with every charge in Michigan Methodism, and we urge the various churches and pastors to co-operate in an endeavor to increase the endowment by $200,000 during the next two years.

We urge our pastors: (1) To make the local educational collection at least ten cents per member; (2) To give especial attention to the children's day collection; (3) To send every student possible to Albion; (4) To advise our pastors in cities where state institutions are located of Methodist students attending such schools.

We recommend that the following brethren be appointed as visitors Garrett—J. W. Turner and Walter H. Smith; Drew—Eugene Yager and E. P. Bennett; Boston—A. W. Stalker and H. A. Leeson; Albion—A. A. Lancaster and H. D. Dietz.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We express our gratitude for the Epworth League which has contributed a multitude of efficient young men to our official boards, thousands more to our ministry, and an army of our best young men and women to the mission fields and other forms of christian service.

We heartily endorse the institutes under the management of the central office and the state organization as containing the promise of new life to the Epworth League and to the church. We urge our chapters to generously co-operate in the extension of this movement, and to be as well represented as possible at any institute held at an accessible point.

We note with pleasure the success of other International Conventions. Its attendance of 6,000 at such a remote location is an indication of undiminished enterprise in the League.

We urge the adult members of our churches to unite with the pastor in fostering, encouraging and supporting the League in all its legitimate enterprises. We urge the establishment wherever practicable of both senior and junior chapters. We commend the courses of training and methods of work constantly being developed by the Central office and the state organization.

The state officers are: Rev. Hugh Kennedy, Pres.; Rev. Walter R. Fruit, Vice. Pres. for the Detroit Conference; Rev. G. Gilbert Stansell, Vice. Pres. for the Mich. Conference; Rev. David Hasler Glass, Secretary and Treasurer.

OLD PEOPLES' HOME.

We are glad to report that the past year has been one of prosperity for the Home.

The Endowment Fund, on the first of last September amounted to $10,950.00. In addition to this are the one dollar subscriptions which are being raised by Dr. Jacklin's call for one hundred ten dollar subscriptions; these up to the first of the present month amounted to $470.00, forty-four persons at ten dollars, two at five dollars and one at twenty dollars.

The interest on the Endowment Fund, and the amounts transferred to this fund from the Admission Fund according to the rules of the board, together with the gifts from individuals and churches have very nearly met the current expenses for the year.

It is a rule the board adopted at the outset that only ten per cent. of the amount any person might bring to the Home on admission, should be used for current expenses, and that after the sixth year even this amount should not be taken, but the balance should remain intact until the death of the member, thus sacredly reserving a portion of the admission fund sufficient to enable the board to carry out their contract with each member.

The launching of an enterprise like this and bringing it to the present degree of development has involved careful planning, and a vast amount of work.

On the first of September, one year ago, there were fifteen resident members in the home. Since that time seven others have been received, making a total of twenty-two in the family during the year. On the twentieth of last March the circle was broken by the sudden departure of Sister Balls.

The freedom of the inmates from sickness during the year has been quite remarkable.

The Home is under the superintendency of Bro. C. W. Saunders and his wife, who are rendering excellent service.

We are sure there is no need of exhortation that you stand by this enterprise. We would call your attention to the recommendation of the conference committee of a year ago: (1) "That quarterly conferences set apart a definite amount in their annual budget; (2) That circles be formed on each charge of persons who will pay one dollar annually; (3) Where neither of these methods can be used, we urge that a collection be taken."

We nominate for re-election for a term of three years the following brethren whose term of office as trustees expires at this session of the conference: J. E. Jacklin, H. T. Dennis, J. S. Smart, D. H. Glass, C. W. Baldwin, and as a new member we nominate D. B. York.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. WASHBURN,
Pres. of Board of Trustees.

THE SUPERANNUATED PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY OF THE DETROIT ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

C. W. BALDWIN, President, Detroit.

ORGANIZATION.

This Society was organized Dec. 20, 1861, for a term of thirty years; it was reorganized Dec. 20, 1891, for a further term of thirty years.

The reasons for such an organization were lucidly set forth in the original "Articles of Association," and are substantially as follows: The duties of a Methodist minister demand the whole of his time and cut him off from opportunities of accumulating money and property. He is ordinarily inadequately remunerated for his labors, and when accident, sickness, or old age compels his retirement, he is usually without means of support. By the course of his training and the absorbing nature of his life work, he has been unfitted for easy adjustment to secular affairs and it is next to impossible for him to get and hold a place amid the fierce competitions of bread winners. The church having had the benefit of his best energies, and having exhausted his capacity for active labor, should provide the pecuniary relief which the situation demands.

AIM.

This society is authorized to raise a fund, not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars, by means of membership fees, contributions, donations, bequests and otherwise, for affording such relief.

The fund thus created is called "The Endowment Fund" and is to be invested, and kept invested perpetually in interest bearing securities.

BENEFICIARIES.

The interest by the investment of the endowment fund is annually distributed among the following classes of claimants.

First.—The members of the Detroit Annual Conference who are on the superannuated roll.

Second.—The widows of deceased members of the Detroit Annual Conference, who were married to their deceased husbands prior to superannuation.

Third.—The minor children of the first and second classes of claimants, who are under the age of sixteen.

EXHORTATION.

To what better purpose can the lovers of our Methodism devote their wealth than in permanently providing that the men who minister to the spiritual needs of the church shall not lack needed temporal comforts in the years of decline and disability? The lack of competent provision for our worn out preachers and their dependent families has been, and still is, a standing reproach to our church. Who will help to roll away the reproach? Let every Methodist Layman, whom the Lord has entrusted in the stewardship of wealth aid us to reach the one hundred thousand dollar mark as soon as possible. This may seem a large sum of money, but with the largest list of claimants of all the conferences, the amount each one receives from the interest earnings will be pitifully small compared with what his needs call for.

When you make your will do not forget the name of this society; put it in just as it is printed at the head of this article. But it will be a wise thing to be your own executor and to help us while you live, so that you may enjoy the sunshine your benevolence brings to the home of the superannuated preacher. Remember that what goes into our Endowment Fund will be unwasting; it will go on earning dividends for the needy servants of God and the Church long after you have passed over to the land where is neither hunger nor thirst.

Write to the Secretary for information if you need any, and inform him of your benevolent intentions for this worthy cause.

JOHN SWEET, Secretary,
163 Lincoln Ave., Detroit, Mich.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE TRANSPORTATION AND ENTERTAINMENT.

Your committee of ministers and laymen respectfully submit the following recommendation which is in two sections:

SECTION ONE.—Organization.

1. There shall be constituted at this session of the conference a Bureau of Transportation and Entertainment composed of one member from each district.

2. Their term of service shall be for three years except that this year the members from Ann Arbor, Detroit and Flint Districts shall be elected for one year; the members from Port Huron and Saginaw Valley Districts shall be elected for two years.

3. The District Superintendents shall nominate one minister and the conference shall elect.

4. The Bureau shall elect a Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer who shall constitute their executive committee. The name of the Secretary of the Bureau shall be published in our minutes (and shall substitute the name of the Secretary of Transportation) in the list of Conference Officers.

SECTION TWO.—Transportation.

1. The Bureau shall make a careful estimate of the amount necessary to pay the actual traveling expenses of all our effective ministers and probationers and such others as are hereinafter provided, in their journey to and from the annual session.

2. Superannuate members of this conference shall be considered guests of the conference and shall have their traveling expenses included in the above estimate, provided that they notify the Secretary of the Bureau in writing of their expectation to be present; this notification to be not later than June first. Their traveling expenses shall be paid only within the bounds of the conference.

3. Regular supplies who are recommended by the District Superintendent not later than June first, as having been in charge of a circuit or station for six months, shall have their traveling expenses included in the budget of traveling expenses.

4. The Bureau shall apportion to each effective minister, probationer and recommended supply, on the basis of salary received (house rent not included), his share of the total amount required. The Secretary shall notify him of his apportionment not later than the first of July.

5. The minister or supply, whose apportionment exceeds the amount of his traveling expenses, as estimated by the Bureau, shall pay to the Bureau Treasurer on or before the second day of the conference session, such excess.

6. The Bureau Treasurer shall pay on or before the last day of the conference session to all the ministers, probationers or supplies (recommended), whose estimated traveling expenses exceed their apportionment, such excess or their pro-rata share of the funds collected.

7. Supernumerary members of this conference, who shall indicate to the Secretary of the Bureau, in writing, not later than the first of June, their expectation of being present at the conference session, shall have their traveling expenses paid within the bounds of the conference and they shall share in the apportionment of the budget of expense, on the basis of the salary received by them in the last year of their effective relation.

8. All members of the conference receiving Special Appointments shall neither share in the apportionment of traveling expenses nor receive from the amount so raised, unless by the special action of the conference at its preceeding session.

9. Any member of this conference (or supply) failing to pay at the proper time the amount due from him to this fund, shall be deemed unwilling to meet his fair share of the burdon of traveling expenses necessitated by the conference sessions and shall have no claim on the Bureau until such apportionment is paid, with such additional forfeit as the Bureau may determine.

AMENDMENT.

The conference shall determine, as now, where it shall hold its annual session, if there be no invitatoin received during the conference session. The responsibility for securing a conference host shall lodge with this Bureau.

Rules of Order.

Adopted in 1869, Modified in 1876, and Adopted at Each Session Since.

1. The Conference shall meet at 8¼ o'clock A. M., and adjourn at 12 M., but may alter the time of meeting and adjourn at its discretion.
2. The President shall take the chair precisely at the time to which the Conference stood adjourned. The first half hour of the session shall be devoted to religious services, and thereafter the journals of the preceding day shall be read and approved.
3. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but, in case of an appeal, the question shall be taken without debate.
4. He shall appoint all Committees, not otherwise specially ordered by the Conference, but any member may decline serving on more than one Committee at the same time.
5. All motions and resolutions introduced by any member shall be reduced to writing, if the President, Secretary, or any member of the Conference requests it.
6. When a motion, resolution, or report presented is read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference, but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before action or amendment.
7. No new motion or resolution shall be made before the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following should intervene, which motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, viz.: Indefinite postponement, lying on the table, reference to a Committee, postponement to any given time, or amendment.
8. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the President, to call him to order when he departs from the question, uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems the speaker out of order, or any other member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.
9. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the President.
10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same subject, or more than fifteen minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.
11. When any motion or resolution shall have passed, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration.
12. No member shall absent himself from the services of Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.
13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time such question is put by the President, except by leave of Conference, when such member has been necessarily absent.
14. Every member who shall be within the bar at the time the question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, excuses him.
15. No motion shall be considered unless seconded.
16. The Secretary shall keep a journal of the proceedings of the Conference, and, when approved, shall record them in a book provided for that purpose. He shall take charge of the journal and other papers of the Conference, and preserve them with care; suffer no person to take a copy of any paper during the interval of Conference, except with the consent of the Conference; and shall forward the journal and papers to the next Annual Conference.
17. A motion to adjourn shall be in order at any time, and shall be decided without debate.
18. No preacher shall bring any charge against any member of this Conference until he has first given him information of the same, either by letter or otherwise, ten days in advance, if practicable, so that the accused may have an opportunity for defense.
19. When any brother intends to object to the passage of another's character, it shall be his duty to hand the name of the person against whom objections are to be made to the President of the Conference.
20. Two-thirds of the members present, and voting, may order the previous question on a pending motion.
[A motion to table an amendment to a resolution does not carry the resolution to the table.]

Regulations.

1. The Conference has requested the District Superintendents to present the names, as candidates for admission on trial in the Conference, of such persons only as have attained the equivalent of a twelve-grade high school education, and are under thirty years of age. But time previously spent either in supply work or in one of our schools in preparation for the ministry, shall be allowed in credit.

2. Each candidate for admission on trial shall obtain from his District Superintendents, before being admitted to examination, a written statement that said Presiding Elder intends to present his name to the Conference.

3. Each candidate for admission on trial, and for admission into full membership, must present himself to the Committee on Ministerial Equipment during the first and second days of the Conference session.

4. Each candidate for admission on trial, for admission into full membership or for ordination as local deacons or local elders, must appear before the Committee on Ministerial Equipment during the first days of the Conference session, which committee shall examine the candidate as to his personal attitude to the doctrines and discipline of the Church.

5. The examination of candidates for admission on trial and for ordination as local deacons and local elders will be held at the seat of the Annual Conference the day before the opening session. If desired, the examinations for the above purposes can be taken at the mid-year examinations, as indicated in the schedule. According to the ruling of the Bishop no person can be received on trial, nor elected to Deacons or Elders orders while conditioned in any study.

6. A properly authenticated certificate showing that a candidate has already pursued and passed a satisfactory examination in a prescribed study as a regular attendant on the class room instruction, in any of our regular Theological Seminaries, Universities and Colleges approved by our University Senate, will be received in lieu of conference examination.

7. Similar certificates will also be accepted in all studies not biblical or theological from other than Methodist Schools, if of equal grade with those approved by our University Senate. The examiner in each particular case must satisfy himself as to whether the work done is a fair equivalent or not.

8. A certificate of graduation from one of our regular Theological Seminaries will be accepted in place of an examination in all the biblical and theological studies. Also a certificate of graduation from one of our regular colleges will be accepted in place of an examination in all literary studies of the various courses.

9. A certificate of admission to any high school or academy of good standing will be accepted in place of an examination in "Elementary English." A certificate of graduation from any such school will be accepted in place of an examination for "English Branches."

10. Certificates presented for credit should show the amount of time given to the subject, text books used, and the year in which the work was done.

11. There will be two mid-year examinations during the year. The first will be held at 9 a. m. on the last Tuesday in April, and the second on the first Tuesday in August, at such places as may be determined by the Chairman of the Board. The places to be duly announced in the "Michigan Christian Advocate" at least two weeks before the time of Examination in each case.

12. All candidates are required to appear at the mid-year examinations, writing upon the subjects as prescribed in the above plan, or furnish satisfactory excuse to the Chairman.

13. Each candidate expecting to take any examination at Conference time must notify the Chairman of his intention not later than August 15.

14. Each candidate shall file with the Registrar on the Tuesday preceding the opening of the Annual Conference a written statement that he has read all the books "To be read." No substitutes for books to be read will be accepted. This rule applies also to candidates for local deacon's orders.

15. Sermons and essays may be sent to the Registrar at any time providing sufficient postage is enclosed to allow the Registrar to forward same to the proper Examiner, otherwise they may be handed in at the mid-year examinations. They should be handed in as early in the year as possible. This rule applies also to candidates for local deacons orders. All sermons, essays and papers, also certificates, will be returned to the annual Conference where the candidate can secure them.

16. Sermons, essays and examination papers shall not be signed, but the name of the candidate shall be written on a separate sheet and attached to each of his papers. The Registrar shall forward all papers to the proper Examiner without the candidate's name, but accompanied by the number corresponding to the number of the candidate's name on the registrar's roll. For sermons, essays examination papers, and fees a receipt shall be given the candidate.

17. By order of the Conference each candidate is required to pay annually, at his first examination, a fee of one dollar. Unless the fee is paid no papers of the candidate can be forwarded by the Registrar to the several examiners.

18. Each examiner shall prepare and send to the chairman at least one month before the time of the examination a list of at least ten questions on each subject assigned him. Each examiner is expected to furnish such information and suggestion concerning the books or subjects assigned him as will be most helpful to the students pursuing the course of study and preparing for the examinations. Students are invited to consult personally or by letter with the examiners concerning any difficulties connected with their work. The examiner shall grade and mark the papers, essays and sermons on a scale of 100, and the candidate must attain a standing of 70 in order to pass. After an examiner has marked and delivered a paper to the Registrar he shall have no authority to change the marking without the consent of the Board.

19. All examinations shall take place in the presence of a member of the Board or of a Supervisor appointed by the Chairman, who shall collect the fees, papers, sermons and essays, receipting for same, and shall forward them immediately to the Registrar.

20. At the several examinations the subjects will be taken up in the order in which they appear in this schedule. After a class has written upon a set of questions, no absentee shall be permitted to write up on the same set without consent of the Board, or of the conducting examiner or supervisor. The candidate shall be required to finish writing on one study before receiving questions on another. Candidates can write at the mid-year examinations only on the studies as prescribed in the above schedule.

Send for Six Easy Ways to Raise Money To Buy an EPWORTH Church Organ

If your church or school needs an organ or piano write me about it at once and I will send free my little book of six easy and pleasant ways to raise the money. It's just like fun for Ladies' Aids, Epworth Leagues, Sunday schools and day schools to buy an Epworth by my easy plans. I have helped thousands of churches to get musical instruments and I will be glad to help yours, too.

Don't wait but write a letter or postal today about like this: "Send free catalog with factory prices and six easy ways of buying a church organ." Address me personally as follows:

CHURCH INSURANCE MORE VALUABLE THAN EVER

is the service now being rendered by the NATIONAL MUTUAL CHURCH INSURANCE CO., OF CHICAGO.

Incorporated by direction of the General Conference of 1896.

Each month of 1908 showed a steady gain in business, just as during previous years. Business now exceeds $32,000,000. Losses paid over $410,000. Profits go to policy holders. Advantageous rates and easy terms of payment. Insures church property and pastors' property against fire, lightning and tornado. Those entitled to share in the benefits of this system should get full particulars.

As the Tiger in the Forest is the King of Beasts and Conquers his prey, so Tiger Oil is King of Remedies and subdues all pain.

It is compounded of twenty-six ingredients working in harmony with each other. It cures more kinds of diseases than we have space and time to tell you. Try it for fifty cents for a dollar bottle to ministers.

Here is a testimonial:

J. M. CLARK MEMORIAL HOME.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Mar. 10, '09.

Dr. John Leeson, Cadillac, Mich.

My Dear Friend—I want to express to you my obligations for the benefits I have received from your valuable medicine; Tiger Oil especially has been a great help to me in my afflictions. I must say from observations carefully made that no medicine has been so effectual as this superb remedy for many diseases. While on Grand Traverse district I dispensed not a little of this remedy in the homes of the afflicted. The Tiger Oil you sent this institution is of great advantage to many of the old people of this Home. Indeed Doctor, I esteem you as a public benefactor and trust God will reward you for all your benevolences.

Yours,
A. J. ELDRED, D. D.

Ask your druggist for it, or send direct to me.

I challenge any medicine to equal Tiger Oil for its power over disease.

DR. JOHN LEESON CADILLAC, MICH.

In some cases they last longer. They never need repairs. They're fire-proof, storm-proof. They reduce the cost of insurance, and they're easy to lay. They preserve the building too, by keeping out dampness: so if you want a thoroughly cozy home in winter, and a cool house in summer, you can't do better than see that Cortright Shingles are used for the covering.

Write for our three free books showing all styles of Cortright Metal Shingles as used all over America.

WOLVERINE AND MARSHALL FURNACES

and the WOLVERINE System of Heating and Ventilating are something you want to investigate before you place your contract for any heating apparatus.

We sell direct to you at manufacturer's prices, not only the furnace, but all piping, registers, and other fixtures all cut and fitted ready to put together.

Then we send our own salaried mechanics to install your job and give you a written guarantee that the furnace will give entire satisfaction or we will remove it and refund your money.

It costs you nothing to investigate and receive our written proposition. Write for our large illustrated catalog that describes and illustrates these furnaces and explains the WOLVERINE SYSTEM of installation and contains lots of other interesting and valuable information.

This catalog is mailed anywhere free, post paid on request. Drop us a post-card and ask for Catalog No. 45.
